

Daily Lesson Plan

|  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| Class:?   | Date:?   | Teacher:?  |
| Title of LessonMobile Technologies –Mobile Technologies  |   |   |
| Objectives1) Lesson to be engaging and fun! (Drawing on students own expert knowledge)2) To allow students to realise the potential and practicality of mobile devices.3) Help students see the benefits and negatives of mobile devices  |   |   |
| Description of Learning ActivitiesDiscussion filled lesson with group work and minimum “teaching” by the teacher. Applied learningDiscussion on mobile technologiesUsing relevant examples to maintain attention the following are the learning outcomes. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▶ What is a mobile device</li> <li>▶ Mobile operating systems</li> <li>▶ Android vs iOS</li> </ul>Plenary:Students to review and reflect on the above learning outcomes | Assessment Methods(including differentiation)Informal – Discussion and feedback | Links to equality &amp; diversity differentiation / link to assessmentEquality and diversity:Material used will aim to include examples relevant to all – gender and cultureDifferentiated groups:Class will be delivered in a non biased/stereotypical fashionLink to assessment:This is a lesson geared towards covering the state curriculum.Peer assessment will take place in the class as well as informal assessment in the form of questioning and quiz. Students will be assigned homework and exercises to complete.We have used YouTube to supplement learning – some students have enjoyed this. |
| Stretch and Challenge and Extension Activities :  |   |   |
| Learning outside the classroom Due in :   | Learning outside the classroom set for next lesson:  |   |